

ANAN and CITN Sign MoU on Reciprocal Membership and Training

ANAN, President, Alh. Shehu Usman Ladan(Right) and CITN President, Dr. Cyril Ede (Left) signing the MoU

ANAN, President, Alh. Shehu Usman Ladan and CITN President, Dr. Cyril Ede (Right and Left Centre respectively) displaying copies of the signed MoU while Vice Presidents and Registrars/Chief Executives of both Bodies look on ...

Pursuant to the ANAN mission of advancing the science of accountancy and indeed to foster greater collaboration amongst professional bodies towards national development, the President and Chairman of Council of ANAN, Alhaji Shehu Usman Ladan, mni, FCNA initiated an MoU between ANAN and CITN in June 2018, which crystalized into the signing of MoU on November 19, 2018 at the ANAN Secretariat in Lagos. The primary aim of the MoU is to strengthen the strong cordial relationship between the two professional bodies for the benefits of their members, and indeed the public interest. Accordingly, the following are the major provisions of the MoU:

1. That members of ANAN, possessing ANAN's Practising Certificate, with the intention of becoming Tax Practitioners, shall be granted direct membership of CITN, with full rights to practice taxation upon the fulfillment of CITN's conditions for granting Practising License to its members.
2. That ANAN members without ANAN license to practice and who desire to practice taxation, shall be granted direct membership of CITN with full rights to practice taxation, subject to applying for and obtaining the CITN's practicing license as applicable to other CITN members, before being entitled to practice taxation, PROVIDED always that ANAN members shall not be required to sit for qualifying examination as a condition for being granted direct membership of CITN.

3. That CITN shall offer direct Fellowship to Members of ANAN who seek to become Fellows of CITN subject to their meeting CITN Fellowship conditions/requirements.
4. That members of Chartered Institute of Taxation of Nigeria (CITN) interested in becoming members of Association of National Accountants of Nigeria (ANAN) shall be exempted from all Tax courses both at Professional A and Professional B examinations levels; and meet any other conditions for admission into the membership of ANAN.
5. That members of Chartered Institute of Taxation of Nigeria (CITN) that are Accountants with B.Sc/HND Accounting qualification and appropriate years of experience shall also be considered for direct membership of Association of National Accountants of Nigeria (ANAN) provided they satisfy any other conditions for ANAN membership.
6. That members of Chartered Institute of Taxation of Nigeria (CITN) that are Accountants with MBA/MSc/PhD Accounting and other related qualifications and appropriate years of experience shall be entitled to direct membership of Association of National Accountants of Nigeria (ANAN) provided they satisfy any other conditions for ANAN membership.
7. That the two Bodies will collaborate in terms of training programmes and pursuant to that will harmonise the cost of joint training programmes organised by both bodies and benefits shared accordingly.
8. That any misunderstanding between ANAN and CITN that may arise due to the construction or implementation of this MoU will be resolved amicably by the parties.

Dr Nuruddeen Abba Abdullahi, mni, FCNA
Registrar/Chief Executive