

Students

The College supports and encourages the active participation of students in non-academic issues through a student association called STUDENT SOCIETY. The Student Society is made up and governed by students only. At the inception of a new academic year, an election is organized for the in coming student society executives. The College Alumni constitutes of students that have passed through the Nigerian College of Accountancy, Jos.